

ARCHITECTURAL SALES CONSULTANT – COMMERCIAL LIGHTING

- Established brand working with the design community
- High end lighting products
- Competitive salary package

Euroluce is one of Australia's leading lighting companies with an uninterrupted 30 year history of supplying lighting solutions to the professional design community. Our brands are unique and represent the best in European design and innovation.

We are currently going through an exciting period of growth and require a number of technically experienced Sales Consultants to join our National Sales Team (Sydney, Melbourne and Brisbane). Reporting to the GM Sales and Marketing this role will provide you with a high degree of autonomy, working closely with Architects, Designers, Engineers and Specifiers offering them innovative architectural lighting solutions.

You will have an impressive reputation within the architectural and design specification industry and have proven ability to manage sales projects from first contact through to completion. You will be technically astute, strong commercial acumen and a self starter with an established network in this space, along with a genuine commitment to customer service will see you shine in a company that has a strong culture for excellence.

Lighting qualifications or similar study will be highly regarded.

This is an outstanding opportunity for a tenacious and energetic team player who is looking to learn and grow with the business.

Apply now to "light up" your new career, send your resume along with personalized cover letter to Linda Renshaw, Human Resource Manager (HR@euroluce.com.au) or call for a confidential chat 02 9356 9912.
